

Bryan Valliere Outstanding Scout of the Year Award

Troop 13 Wetumpka, Alabama

Description: The Bryan Valliere Scout of Year Award is an award to be presented to one outstanding scout of Troop 13 Wetumpka, Alabama annually in memory of Eagle Scout Bryan Valliere. The award will consist of a minimum $250 (currently $500) credit to be used as the scout wishes for any scout related function, activity, or outing that Troop 13 participates in or approves.

Qualifications: As the title of the award suggest, a boy must be an outstanding scout of Troop 13 to qualify. A scout will be selected based on the following minimum requirements:

- Troop 13 meeting attendance
- Participation in Troop 13 activities and outings
- Satisfactory rank advancement
- Respect and proper wearing of the boy scout uniform
- Leadership
- Training (both personal training and the training of other scouts)
- Community service
- Application of the Scout Law

The qualification period will be from January thru December of each year.

A scout can only qualify once every 3 (or 2?) years.

Selection: The selection of the scout will be made by all registered adult leaders of Troop 13 at a special committee meeting held during the month of December of each year.

Award Presentation: The award will be presented to the recipient during the December Court of Honor of each year.
